

DEVOTION FLIES HIGH

To mark the beginning of the Karthigai Deepam festival, the traditional flag was hoisted on the 73 feet pole at Annamalaiyar Temple in Tiruvannamalai today. Hindu Religious and Charitable Endowments Minister Sevoor Ramachandran, Collector Kandhasaamy and senior officials took part in the event. Close to 15,000 devotees witnessed the event.

Governor to be given 'salt water' reception

[NT Bureau]

Chidambaram, Nov 14:

Around 20,000 people carrying pots filled with salt water will receive Governor Banwarilal Purohit during his visit to attend the graduation day ceremony of Annamalai University 25 November.

Prior to that, the residents of the town will besiege Chidambaram railway station, seeking various demands including drinking water. The protest is organised by Chidambaram Merchants Association and Kollidam Checkdam Group. The merchants association president Murugappan, secretary Sathish Kumar, Kollidam group coordinators Shanmugam and Senguttuvan said they will be protesting to get the attention of the State government through the Governor.

They said their protest is against the non-construction of Kollidam checkdam for a long period, the issue of salt water intrusion in their villages and against trains not halting at Chidambaram station.

Destroy Nedumaran's book on Eelam: HC

[NT Bureau]

Chennai, Nov 14:

The Madras High Court has ordered the State Government to destroy all the copies of 'Tamizh Eelam Sivakiradhu' book authored by Tamil Desiya Iyakkam leader Pazha Nedumaran.

Nedumaran was arrested in 2002 for writing the book in support of Tamizh Eelam. The copies that were circulated at that time were seized. The government withdrew the case in 2006, after which he was relieved from the case.

Following this, Nedumaran filed a petition at the court seeking the return of the copies seized from him. The petition came for hearing before justice M V Muralidharan.

The advocate who appeared on behalf of Nedumaran argued that the case has been withdrawn and the copies have to be exported to other countries. The government in its response said that releasing the copies in public forum will lead to law and order problem as it is against the Indian army and has made many accusations against the former Prime Minister Rajiv Gandhi.

After hearing the argument from both sides, Justice Muralidharan dismissed the petition and asked the government to take necessary action to destroy all the copies.

Snake bites man at Choolaimedu

[NT Bureau]

Chennai, Nov 14:

A man is undergoing treatment at Kilpauk Medical College and Hospital (KMC) after he was bitten by a snake.

The victim Karthik Mani (30), a resident of Anna Sathya Nagar was rushed to the hospital after a snake bit him. Sources say his condition is stable.

Sabarimala: All-party meet tomorrow

Thiruvananthapuram, Nov 14:

Kerala Chief Minister Pinarayi Vijayan has called for an all-party meet tomorrow to discuss Supreme Court's decision on Tuesday to hear review petitions against its judgment on women's entry into Sabarimala temple. The Chief Minister will discuss future course of action that needs to be taken by the State government in this issue keeping the welfare of the people at large.

Earlier, opposition parties and stakeholders in Sabarimala temple in Kerala welcomed Supreme Court's decision and demanded that women in the age group between 10 and 50 shouldn't be allowed inside the temple during the Mandala Makaravillakku pilgrim season, starting 17 November.

India will become superpower, but ...

International conference on SET at VIT University

Vellore, Nov 14:

There is no doubt that India would become a superpower considering that it had resources for developing its potential in the areas of science and development of its inherent talents, said Ambassador of Ecuador to India, Hector Cueva Jacome.

Inaugurating a two-day international conference on Science, Engineering and Technology (SET) at VIT University Tuesday, he said, India had witnessed phenomenal growth in the area of Information and Technology in the past six years. It had reached such an extent that it could be adopted by many other countries in the world.

Presiding over the conference, VIT University Vice-Chancellor Anand A Samuel said over 1,000 research papers were submitted for presentation in this annual conference and 998 among them were selected to be presented here. Over 2,000 scientists, young researchers, academicians, experts and students from different parts of the world are taking part in the conference.

VIT Pro Vice-Chancellor S S Narayanan, Dean of School of Building Science, S K Sekar were among those present.
